

TICKETS AVAILABLE FOR FOSTER CLINE EVENT ON MARCH 29TH

March 23, 2007, Sandpoint, Idaho...A limited number of tickets are now available to an evening with Dr. Foster Cline, "Live Your Best Life...Now!" Thursday, March 29th, 7:00pm at the Panida Theater. Tickets are available free of charge, while they last, at Eve's Leaves, FC Weskil's and Monarch Mountain Coffee or by calling Life Skills NW at 265-6786. A donation of $5 per person is suggested at the door, however, organizers want to encourage all to attend regardless of the cost.

"We invite people of all ages throughout the community to join us for an enlightening evening devoted to learning about relationships of all kinds featuring Dr. Cline's inimitable mix of wisdom and humor," said Life Skills NW Executive Director Linda Spagon.

The program will focus on the importance of self awareness and healthy relationships in all areas and phases of life: At work, at home as a parent or teen, romantic partner, or friend. Topics of discussion will include: How do we get to be the way we are?, Rules for successful relationships, Principals for successful human interactions and Tapping into the law of attraction.

"We are all capable of discovering the 'secret' to living a more abundant, harmonious and fulfilled life," said Spagon. "We hope you'll bring your friends and family and take advantage of this opportunity to gain knowledge."

This event is presented by and benefiting Life Skills NW, a local non-profit organization with a mission of "Building relationships though personal growth." For more information regarding this event and other Life Skills Classes and Programs, call 208-265-6796.
