TIFC Announces Open Casting Call

The Idaho Film Company seeks four actors for short film, Burden of the Wolf

Sandpoint, ID (7/26/21) – The Idaho Film Company (TIFC), an independent film production company based in Sandpoint, is hosting an open casting call for their upcoming short film, Burden of the Wolf, set to film in the Sandpoint area fall 2022.

TIFC is seeking four young adults, two female and two male, between the ages of 15 and 25 to cast in the key roles of the short. Interested actors should plan to attend the casting event at the East Bonner County Library – Community Room B, on Saturday, August 20 between 10am and 12pm. Anyone under 18 years of age MUST be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

'Burden of the Wolf' is a feature length screenplay currently in development which includes producing a proof of concept short to aid the fundraising pitch. Producing one selected scene from the screenplay will show style and quality goals and festival consideration, a method used by films like 'Whiplash' and 'Slingblade'.

"The Idaho Film Company's goal is to create a viable independent film production company based in Sandpoint," said TIFC Founder, Jimmy Matlosz. "Ultimately, we plan to produce two feature length films a year, to help create additional jobs and revenue in Bonner County."

LOG-LINE: When a teen in a small town is killed in the forest by a wild wolf-like animal, Ambitious Deputy Samantha Randal must navigate the misguided pursuits of her wolf hating Sheriff (boss), meanwhile 4 local teens devise a plan to solve the mystery of their friends untimely death including the possibility of a werewolf attack.

Characters:

HEATHER (18): Somewhat uptight, almost prissy, but a badass under it all. Attracted to Conner.
CONNER (19): Athletic, Handsome, cocky, absent minded, salt of the earth, attracted to Heather.
SETH (18): Portly with a cherub face, sarcastic wit, story teller, dramatic and funny. Attracted to Abby.
ABBY (18): Cute, still maturing, witty, snarky, edgy, shielding a dark side. Attracted to Seth.

The casting call will take place from 10am and 12pm on Saturday, August 20 at the East Bonner County Library – Community Room B. Anyone under 18 years of age MUST be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Interested parties MUST RSVP by email with experience (resume), role interested in and why you would like to be cast to: info@theidahofilmcompany.com
